

● KMF (Precision Sheet Metal) is developing its manufacturing facility at its Newcastle under Lyme headquarters with the installation of laser-profiling technology. KMF is installing two new Trumpf laser-cutting machines and an automated material-handling facility. The total cost of the development is £2.5m, including the construction of a further extension to its factory.